Dear friends and partners,

“In those days there was no king in Israel; everyone did what was right in his own eyes.”
Judges 21:25

“Everyone who saw it was saying to one another, ‘Such a thing has never been seen or done, not since the day the Israelites came up out of Egypt. Just imagine! We must do something! So speak!’”
Judges 19:30

What an incredible time in history to be alive in this age of amazing scientific and technological advancements. We can meet (via the internet) with someone on the other side of the world from our kitchen table. We are living longer than ever through modern health and medical advancements. The list goes on and on.....

However, though much progress has been made in science and technology, the “plague” of our fallen, sinful nature remains. Moral chaos and the subsequent pain and suffering caused by sin is rampant in modern America and threatens our future as a nation. No government program, nor charismatic leader, etc. can rescue us from the “mess” that we are presently in. Like the ancient Israelites during the period of the Judges, we need to “cry out” to God for deliverance! Hope for our future is in JESUS CHRIST if we embrace the cry of the Apostle Paul’s heart, “Oh, what a miserable person I am! Who will free me from this life that is dominated by sin and death? Thank God! The answer is in Jesus Christ our Lord...” Romans 7:24-25a New Living Translation

Penn State students praying for UGA students

Bart working “Truth Booth” at GT with VA TECH student

With this in mind, I participated in several outreach activities this past month desiring to help students “see” and understand their desperate need for Christ. I traveled to UGA to work with a team of Penn State students ministering on their Spring break while also working with another team from Virginia Tech ministering at GT. Also, some student leaders at GSU led an “open air” music (and speaking) event in the courtyard where many students heard the Gospel while “hanging out” between classes. I am always inspired meeting and working with passionate young leaders from other campuses desiring to “make a difference” in their generation by demonstrating and sharing their faith in Jesus. Please pray for the many people we were able to share with including a deeply spiritual (yet very deceived) young man at UGA, an atheist leaning Biology professor at GT, and a guy and girl from GSU who said they were formerly church members, but through their college experience, have lost their faith and no longer believe.

THANK YOU for your partnership. We greatly need your prayer and financial support as we can’t fulfill our mission on the campus without your help! Have a great month and please let us know if we can be of service.

Happy Resurrection Celebration!

Lead Me to The Cross...

"Savior I come, quiet my soul, remember,
Redemptions hill where Your blood was spilled for my ransom,
Everything I once held dear, I count it all as lost.

Lead me to the cross where Your love poured out,
Bring me to my knees Lord I lay me down,
Rid me of myself I belong to You,
Lead me, lead me to the cross..."
