

Post Office Box 2488
Lilburn, GA. 30048
770 778-5056
bartjones@charter.net
www.forerunnersforchrist.org

September 30, 2012

Dear friends and partners,

Bart working the GSU
“truth booth”

“..It is not the will of your Father who is in heaven that one of these little ones perish.” Matthew 18:14

Greetings to you in the wonderful name of Jesus. We hope that you had a great month and that the Fall season will be filled with joy from the Lord and fruitfulness in all your endeavors!

In a recent discussion with some other campus ministers about how to measure “success” in our campus work, I was reminded of something I read in a devotional. Mother Theresa, commenting on her life and her calling to serve people, writes, “I don’t know what the success will be, but if the Missionaries of Charity have brought joy to one unhappy home, made one innocent child from the streets keep pure for Jesus, one dying person die in peace with God, don’t you think...it would be worthwhile offering everything for just that one because that would bring great joy to the heart of Jesus.” You see, though Jesus is the Lord of the multitudes, He touches and saves us one heart (life) at a time! Over the last 24 years of campus ministry, this reality of impacting one person at a time has kept me motivated to keep sharing the Word, to keep passing out tracts and to keep inspiring Christian students to pursue God and His purposes for their lives.

For example, last week our campus group at GSU sponsored an outdoor outreach in the Library Plaza involving music and public preaching and testifying. Many students stopped and listened and were challenged to serve Jesus. Before the event began, I was working the “truth booth” and got into a conversation with a female graduate student from Ethiopia who is a Christian. In short, Mekdes, who is working on her Master’s in Global Health at Morehouse University, was doing research at GSU the day of our outreach. As we talked, she decided to participate with us and had a great time in the Lord sharing with others about Jesus and passing out tracts. I believe God “interrupted” her schedule that day and inspired her to “let her light shine” for Jesus as she continues her academic pursuits.

Bart and student leader Josh Tuck preaching at a recent GSU outreach

We are grateful to God and you for your prayer and financial support. As we partner together, the Lord is using us and other campus workers to see future leaders reached and trained for Christ!

Your campus missionaries,

Bart, Michelle & the Jones kids

+++ Transforming the world by reaching students with the Gospel of Jesus Christ +++

Make Your Votes Count - Heed the Voice of Wisdom!

“When you become entitled to exercise the right of voting for public officers, let it be impressed on your mind that God commands you to choose for rulers, “just men who will rule in the fear of God.” The preservation of [our] government depends on the faithful discharge of this duty; if the citizens neglect their duty and place unprincipled men in office, the government will soon be corrupted; laws will be made, not for the public good so much as for selfish or local purposes; corrupt or incompetent men will be appointed to execute the laws; the public revenues will be squandered on unworthy men; and the rights of the citizens will be violated or disregarded.”

Noah Webster, early American author, educator and political leader